Recommendation Letter

The microtome blades (low profile blades and high profile blades) produced by Shanghai Tongbai Healthcare Technology Co., Ltd. are sold under its own brand iLucid brand.

Our histology lab has been continuously purchasing microtome blades from Shanghai Tongbai Healthcare Technology Co., Ltd. for several year now. There have been 1925boxes of their blades already used in our daily microtomy since Jule,2020.with an average of 55 boxes per month. We have always been satisfied with their quality, deliveries and technical support. With so wide range of suppliers and brands of microtome blades available on the market, we remain the customer of Shanghai Tongbai Healthcare Technology Co., Ltd. Their iLucid brand of microtome blades has the benefit of good cutting properties, they provide fast deliveries and quick response to any request from our side. Immunohistochemistry, immunostaining, tissue sectioning is a very important part of our daily operations, and we appreciate that we can rely on the iLucid blades produced by Tongbai Company's factory in terms of their customer service.

Shanghai Tongbai Healthcare Technology Co., Ltd. always has good quality and excellent customer service. They persistently work on maintaining and increasing their functional features, their iLucid brand microtome blades of are on the quality level of the world-famous international brands, having an advantage of flexibility and better response timing as regards their customer service. We highly estimate that we continuously receive paraffin tissue cuts with 1 μm + thickness by using Tongbai's iLucid microtome blades.
